November 10, 1956 - February 27, 2016
MICHAEL DENNIS COLLINS

Celebration of Life

Mike was preceded in death by his mother Lois Thompson Collins. He is survived by his wife of 22 years, Stacy. He was the father of three adult children, Chip, Lara, and Cole. He is also survived by his sister, Jennifer Collins, nieces and nephews, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Dennis Collins was born in Laramie, Wyoming. He grew up in Laramie, Wyoming, thus starting his love of the West. He attended Livingston High School in Livingston, Montana, and then went on to college at Montana State University in Bozeman, Montana. After high school, Mike transferred to the University of Wyoming where he received two bachelor's degrees in soil science and agronomy. He then transferred to the University of Wyoming where he received two bachelor's degrees in soil science and agronomy. He then attended the University of Wyoming where he received two bachelor's degrees in soil science and agronomy. He then attended the University of Wyoming where he received two bachelor's degrees in soil science and agronomy. He then attended the University of Wyoming where he received two bachelor's degrees in soil science and agronomy.

Mike and Stacy first moved to Cheyenne, Wyoming, where Stacy was employed as a Soil Conservationist. He worked for 29 years for the US Agriculture Department. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist.

Mike and Stacy first moved to Cheyenne, Wyoming, where Stacy was employed as a Soil Conservationist. He worked for 29 years for the US Agriculture Department. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist.

Mike and Stacy first moved to Cheyenne, Wyoming, where Stacy was employed as a Soil Conservationist. He worked for 29 years for the US Agriculture Department. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist. He then transferred to the University of Idaho, where he was employed as an agricultural scientist.
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

"Surely goodness and loving kindness will follow me all the days of my life; I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Psalm 23:6

You have anointed my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Psalm 23:5

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil, for you are with me.

Psalm 23:4

The Lord is my shepherd.

I shall not want.

Psalm 23:1

A Psalm of David.

Welcome Invocation - Mere Smith

Pre-Service Music

"Can Only Imagine " - Matt Redman

"Vainous Songs - America's Favorite Band (Mike's Favorite band)

Welcome Musicians: Tim Gallop

Blessing

Time of Sharing - Jim Clay, Gay Collins (Others May Share)

Eulogy/Memorial - Mire Smith

Song: "On Eagles Wings" Performed by Karen Smith

Scripture Reading - Scott Stapp, Brandon Miller

Song: "In My Life" - The Beatles

Ordinary Reading - Rob Pickett

Invocation/Welcome - Mere Smith

Pre-Service Music

Benediction - Mere Smith

Time of Sharing - Jim Clay, Gay Collins (Others May Share)